

Athea Roberts Music Grant Program

Lexington Community Foundation (LCF) administers the Athea Roberts Music Grant Program. Grant funding from the Athea Roberts Music Grant Program may be requested to support any music related activity in Lexington. Athea began her formal music education at age 6 and began teaching piano at age 16. In 70 years of piano lessons, she taught hundreds of students, while her music and years of community service, touched thousands of lives. Music was a strong part of Athea's life and being the organist at the First Presbyterian Church in Lexington from age 11 to 91 brought her great enjoyment. Athea played for countless weddings, funerals, and Sunday church services. Through the ATHEA ROBERTS MUSIC GRANT PROGRAM, her love of music and the community will continue to impact the lives of so many here in Lexington.

Grant amounts will range from $100 - $500. The number of grants awarded will be determined by the number of qualified applications received.

To receive funding consideration, completed application and narrative description should be submitted to the LCF office no later than November 30th for review by LCF Grants Committee.

Grant proposals should include:

- A. Completed application
- B. Narrative description of your program(s) / project(s) (NOT TO EXCEED ONE PAGE)
 - 1. Purpose of the grant
 - 2. Describe how the program(s) / project(s) will positively impact the community
 - 3. Timetable

The LCF Grants Committee will review all requests. Funding decisions will be made within one month of the date the application is received.
